

Recap: Spring Membership Meeting
Wednesday, May 22, 2019 | 6:00 - 8:00 pm
Westcott Community Center

- 31 members attended the meeting. Quorum was not present, and no official business was conducted.
- The meeting started with sign-in and refreshments. Dinner and snacks were served, as well as samples from dishes prepared by members as part of the “Spring Ingredient Cook Off.”
- Meagan Weatherby, Board President, welcomed members and made brief opening remarks.
- Colleen Gibbons, Board Member and Chair of the Bylaws Committee, delivered a presentation on Bylaws. Colleen, through her profession as a lawyer, is an experienced bylaws enthusiast. The presentation covered
 - What are bylaws?
 - Who uses bylaws?
 - Why do we need to change them?
 - What changes are we proposing?
 - What is our process for changing them?
- Jeremy DeChario, General Manager, delivered a presentation on Expansion Planning. The presentation covered
 - Why do we want to expand?
 - What types of scenarios are we pursuing?
 - What are the risks of not expanding?
 - What will it take for an expansion to be feasible?
- Members in attendance were invited to ask questions, share comments, and discuss subject matter from the presentations. The conversation was very positive and lively, with many participants and a broad range of questions. Q&A continued until the meeting ended at 8 pm.
- Meagan thanked members for attending and encouraged them to get involved by joining the Member Engagement Committee or the Bylaws Committee; running for the Board of Directors; attending Board meetings; and helping to vote in revised bylaws by attending & spreading the word about the Fall Membership Meeting.
